

application.py

```
"""
Application entry point for Render deployment.
This file is specifically named to work with Render's web service detection.
"""
import os
import sys
from vulnedu import create_app

Get the configured port from environment
PORT = int(os.environ.get('PORT', 10000))

This file helps Render detect the proper application instance
print(f"[application.py] Starting VulnEdu application on Render...") print(f"[application.py] Python version: {sys.version}") print(f"[application.py] Current directory: {os.getcwd()}") print(f"[application.py] Environment variables: " + ", ".join( [f"{k}={v[:10]}..." if len(v) > 10 else f"{k}={v}" for k, v in os.environ.items() if
'DATABASE' in k or 'POSTGRES' in k or 'RENDER' in k or 'PORT' in k]))
print(f"[application.py] Using PORT: {PORT}")

This is what Render will look for
app = create_app()

if __name__ == "__main__":
For local testing
app.run(host='0.0.0.0', port=PORT)
```